Please review our complete cancellation, course change, refund and other policies at www.MQEprep.com.

Course change policy: we reserve the right to cancel any course or move the dates of any course at any time. If we cancel a course or move the dates of a course that you have registered in and paid for, you may either 1) transfer your registration to another course or 2) receive a full refund.

Cancellation policy: if you cancel your registration, for any reason, at least 14 days notice is required. You will receive a full refund less a $100 administrative fee (plus applicable taxes) provided you haven't yet received the course package. If for any reason you think you may need to cancel, you must notify us when you submit your registration form that you do not want your course package shipped.

If you provide less than 14 days notice, or if you have received your course package, or if you have accessed our course portal then you may either 1) transfer your registration to another course offering in the same year providing there is availability or 2) defer your registration to the next year. No refund will be given in the event we do not offer the program in subsequent years and your registration cannot be transferred to other individuals to be used in subsequent years.
